

SURPLUS AUCTION GUIDELINES

- All UAB public sales are open to the general public as well as UAB employees and students.
- UAB surplus equipment is made available to the highest bidder.
- All surplus equipment is sold as is with no warranty.
- Equipment is to be moved at the buyer's expense according to all terms and conditions listed in the auction rules provided on the day of the sale.
- Failure to comply with the rules may cause exclusion from any future sales.
- Items sold at the chair sales or at other special sales are subject to the same rules as public auctions.
- Items may be added to or removed from sales at the discretion of the auction staff acting in the best interest of UAB.
- You must provide your own help to move/load equipment purchased at the auction or the chair sale.
