2009-10 GSC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL WEEKLY RELEASE

Birmingham, Ala. - Led by host school Arkansas Tech, the Gulf South Conference will have three teams vying for a spot in the Elite 8 when the women's South Regional begins on Friday in Russellville, Ark.

GSC West Division co-champion Delta State and East Division winner Valdosta State joined the Golden Suns in securing berths in the NCAA Tournament. ATU earned the league's automatic berth by defeating DSU in a thrilling, double overtime conference championship game on Sunday. Tech, 28-2 overall and winners of five straight, is the No. 1 seed and will face Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference champion Benedict (21-8), the No. 8 seed. The winner of this contest will take on the winner between No. 4 seed Tampa and No. 5 seed Barry.

The Lady Statesmen (25-3), which lost two of its games this season to Arkansas Tech, are the No. 2 seed and draw No. 7 seed Lynn (19-10), winner of the Sunshine State Conference postseason tournament. The Lady Blazers (19-8) also drew an at-large bid after having its 15-game winning streak snapped in the GSC Tournament semifinals. They are the No. 6 seed and will take on No. 3 seed Fort Valley State (26-2), the SIAC regular season champion who had an 11-game winning streak snapped in its conference tournament. The winner of these two contests will face-off in the Regional semifinals on Sunday.

Arkansas Tech is also hosting the men's South Regional and adjusted the schedule so the school could host both tournaments. ATU is just the second school out of the GSC to win both the men's and women's titles in the same year, joining Delta State - which last accomplished the feat in 2006. The only other institution to host both Regionals in the same year was The College of St. Rose in 1998 (the men won the regional, the women did not).

All games will be played at Tucker Coliseum, with the first round taking place on Friday, Mar. 12. Delta State will open against Lynn at 1:30 p.m., followed by Valdosta State-Fort Valley State at 4 p.m. The Arkansas Tech-Benedict game will tip-off at 6:30 p.m. The semifinals are set for Sunday at 1 and 3:30 p.m. and the Regional championship game is slated for Tuesday, Mar. 16 at 5:30 p.m.
