

Dear Judson Student:

On behalf of the College, I write to welcome you to the Judson Experience. Judson is a place of challenge for mind and spirit, a place of caring people, and a place of important accomplishment. It is a place devoted to you.

Every community must have rules and regulations by which its citizens live. The Judson Community is no exception. This handbook clearly states the set of rules and regulations which emanate from the lofty ideals of the College. Your adherence to these policies will assure a constructive and rewarding educational experience.

As a Christian college for women, these policies set us apart from the ordinary. Please review the handbook and let us know if you have any questions.

With every good wish for a meaningful and successful academic year, I am

Sincerely yours,
