Comments about PAOF

"Absolutely wonderful weekend. I met many great potential employers and learned more about areas of Alabama I would like to practice in. Can't imagine a better use of my week-end."

- Past resident/student participant

"I made so many contacts so easily..."

- UAB family practice resident

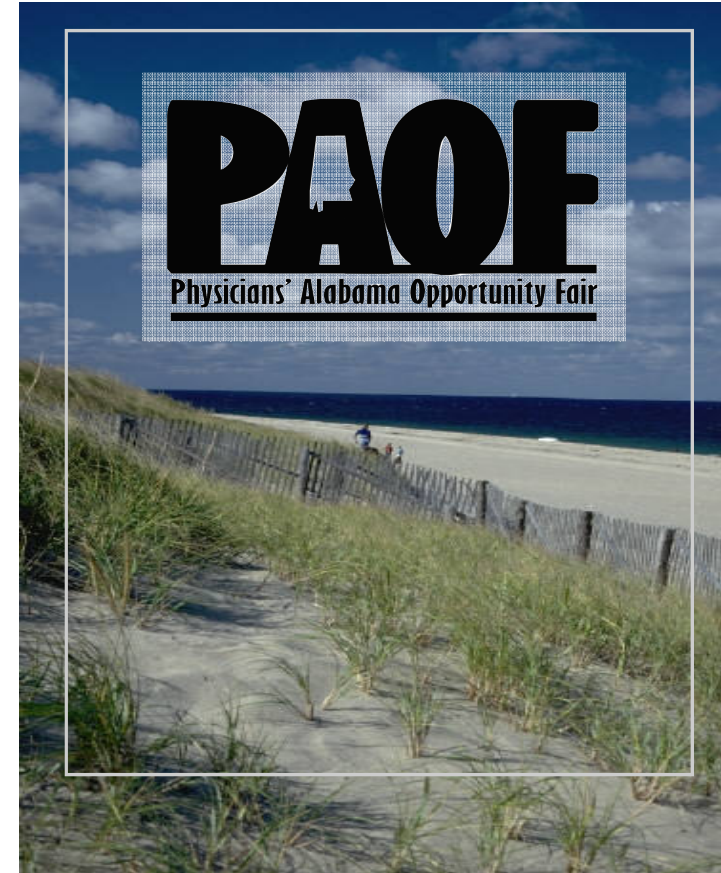

"This is a wonderful way to see all the different opportunities that are out there for primary care residents. It is a must-see! The location is wonderful and the participants are informative and friendly."

Physicians' Alabama Opportunity Fair

Get a FREE First-Hand Look at Primary Care Opportunities in Rural Alabama!

Saturday, February 25, 2012
Perdido Beach Resort
Orange Beach, AL

You are invited to the 2012 Physicians' Alabama Opportunity Fair, showcasing more than 30 of Alabama's rural communities. If you are considering a rural or small-town medical practice, join us to explore the opportunities available to you in Alabama.

Who can participate?

- Primary care residents
- Medical students in their third or fourth year (limited number)
- Licensed physicians currently practicing, but interested in relocating to a small or rural community

What is PAOF?

The 22nd annual Physicians' Alabama Opportunity Fair will be held at Perdido Beach Resort in Orange Beach, Alabama on Saturday, February 25, 2012. PAOF is sponsored by 13 health care organizations interested in helping rural Alabama communities facilitate the excellent health care they deserve. More than 30 rural Alabama communities will host exhibits to highlight the resources of their areas and offer you the rewarding opportunity to come and practice medicine in a small-town environment.

What does it cost?

Because of the generosity of its sponsors, PAOF is FREE for physician attendees. PAOF will reimburse attendees with a small travel stipend after the meeting and one night's accommodations at Perdido Beach Resort. In addition, a luncheon and a cocktail reception are part of the PAOF experience. Door prizes will be given away throughout the day, with the grand prize of $250 to be drawn for at 5 p.m.!
