

Button Fern

Light: Semi-shade, in draft-free corners. Avoid direct sun.

Water: The Button Fern is evergreen and likes to be kept moist through the winter, but not water-logged. Use a special fern fertilizer once a month through the growing season. Increase humidity by misting the plants in summer. If the Pellaea appears scruffy or unkempt trim back old growth to the root crown in spring.

charleston street
care guide