

Succulents

Light: Filtered sun most of the day or 1 to 2 hours of direct sun each day. Many will survive quite well in full sun.

Water: Water thoroughly then let the soil go dry before rewatering. Soil should be felt a couple of centimeters below surface, if dry, water thoroughly and allow to drain. Roots do not like to sit in standing water. Succulents prefer to be underwatered than to overdo it.

charleston street
care guide